EMPLOYEE REQUEST FOR COJET CREDIT NON-FACILITATED LEARNING

(Book/Written Article/Audio/Video)

Per ACJA 1-302, E.5.., a non-facilitated learning program is an individual study program conducted without the aid of an instructor, facilitator or active co-participants. Individuals may receive up to eight (10) credit hours in a calendar year (CY) for any combination of NFL programs.

This "Non-facilitated Learning" (NFL) Individual Request for Credit" form can be used to request COJET credit for the following:

- Writing an Article (or other materials beyond the normal scope of the job position)
- Video and Audio programs
- Reading and Evaluating a Book/Pamphlet, (not exceeding 1/2 credit hour per 30 pages)

In accordance with ACJA §1-302 E.5. Program accreditation, the following criteria must be met to receive COJET credit for Non-facilitated Learning Programs (NFL):

- Training must be job-related, court-related or in support of a job function you might be assigned to back-up; an organized program of learning with stated educational outcomes.
- Be at least 30 minutes in length (or consist of related segments totaling at least 30 minutes of instruction)
- Employee should receive prior approval by the supervisor and local training.
- Retain a copy, and submit the form to the local training coordinator, within 30 days

REMINDER

If NFL programs are to be completed at times other than the employee's regular work schedule, the non-exempt employee should ensure the supervisor approves and is aware of the time spent completing the class, to ensure appropriate compensation.
